1961

ROOSEVELT
JUNIOR COLLEGE

Administration

GREETINGS!

It is with pleasure that we extend greetings to you, the class of 1961, in this initial effort towards producing a yearbook at Roosevelt Junior College.

We look upon the yearbook as a medium of expressing the philosophies and the desires of a group. May you so express yourselves and work towards your objectives that in the years ahead you may look back through your yearbook and realize the fulfillment of a life's ambition.

Knowing you and working with you have meant much to us at Roosevelt Junior College. May God's blessings be with you and yours.

Sincerely,

Britton G. Sayles

Britton G. Sayles

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOOD LUCK

To the class of '61 is extended our best wishes for a successful future. Wherever you go, whatever you do in the years to come, we hope that you will look back on your educational experiences at Roosevelt with fond memories.

Activities

The Bad Seed

They practice hard for the production only for . . .

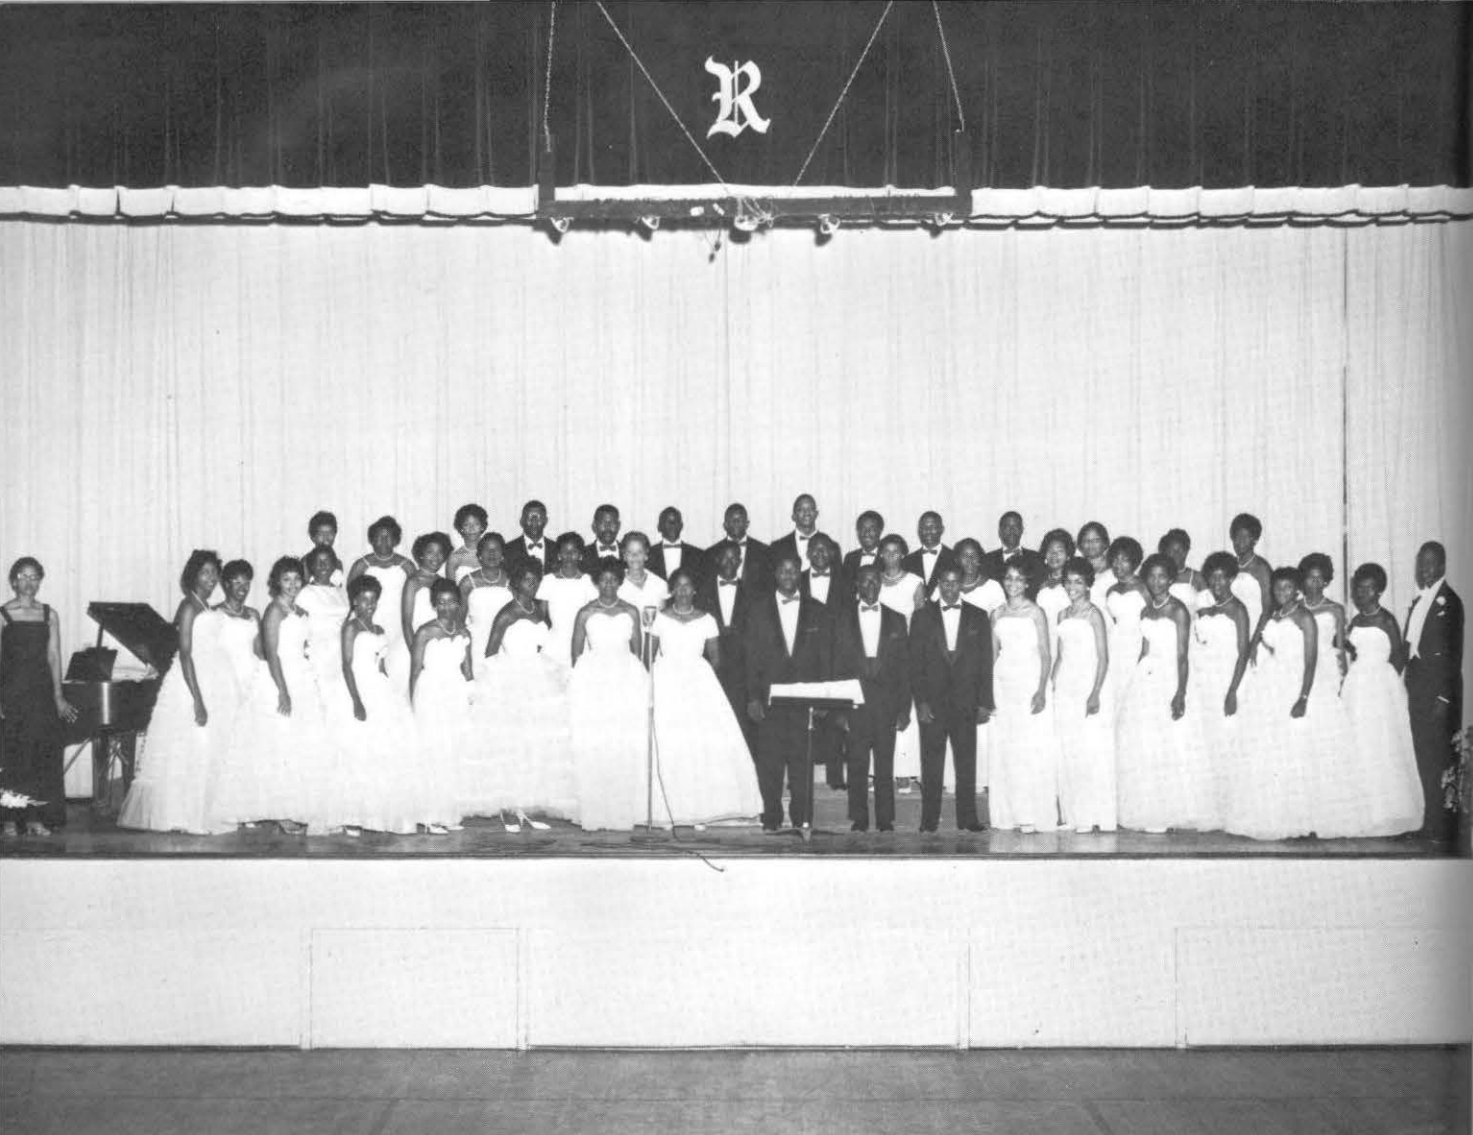

Rhoda (Larcenia) to be accused by Leroy (Sherman) of killing Claude Daigle which she denied.

Her mother (Eleanor) carries her through the second degree . . .

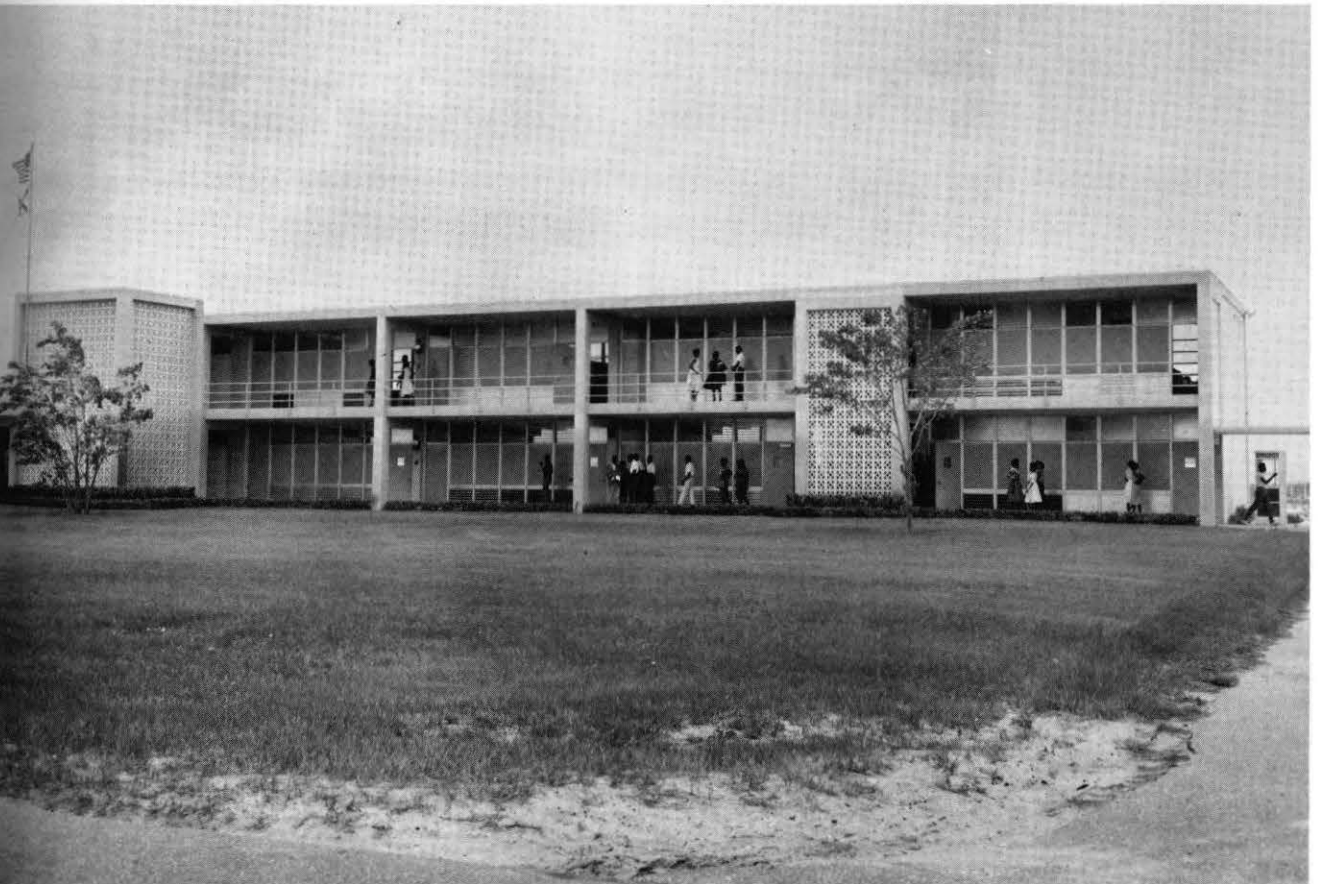

Looking sweet and innocent Rhoda listens intensely while her mother read what is to be her last bed-time story before death . . .

Just finished playing

Do we have to go to class so soon? . . . ? . . . ? . . . ?

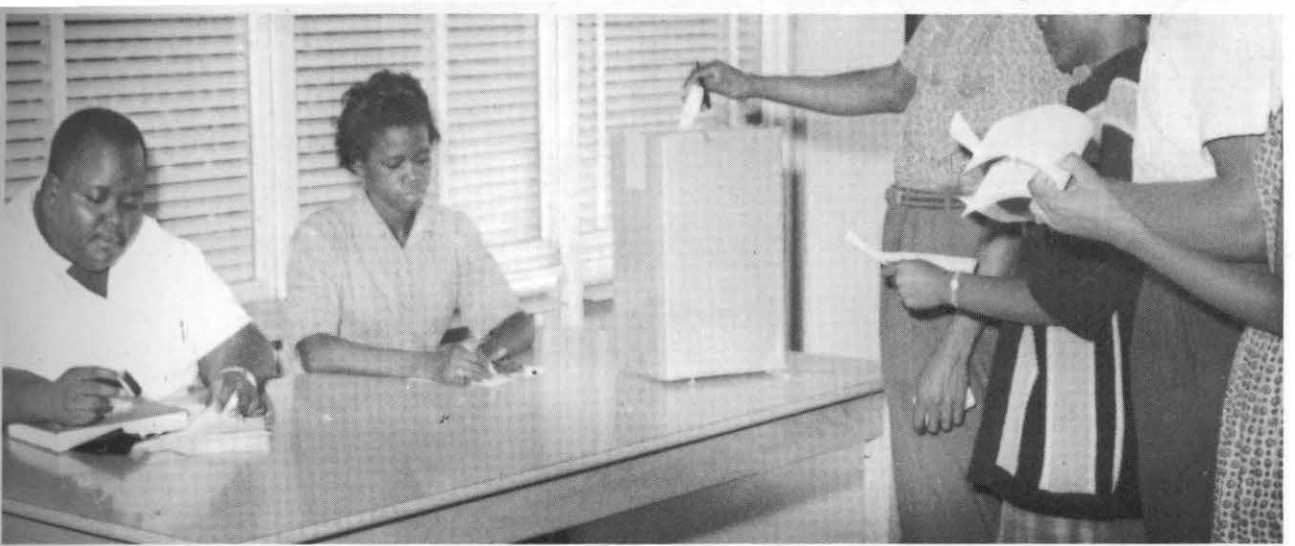

Hey!! Who is the target

We pose for this one the net isn't up . . .

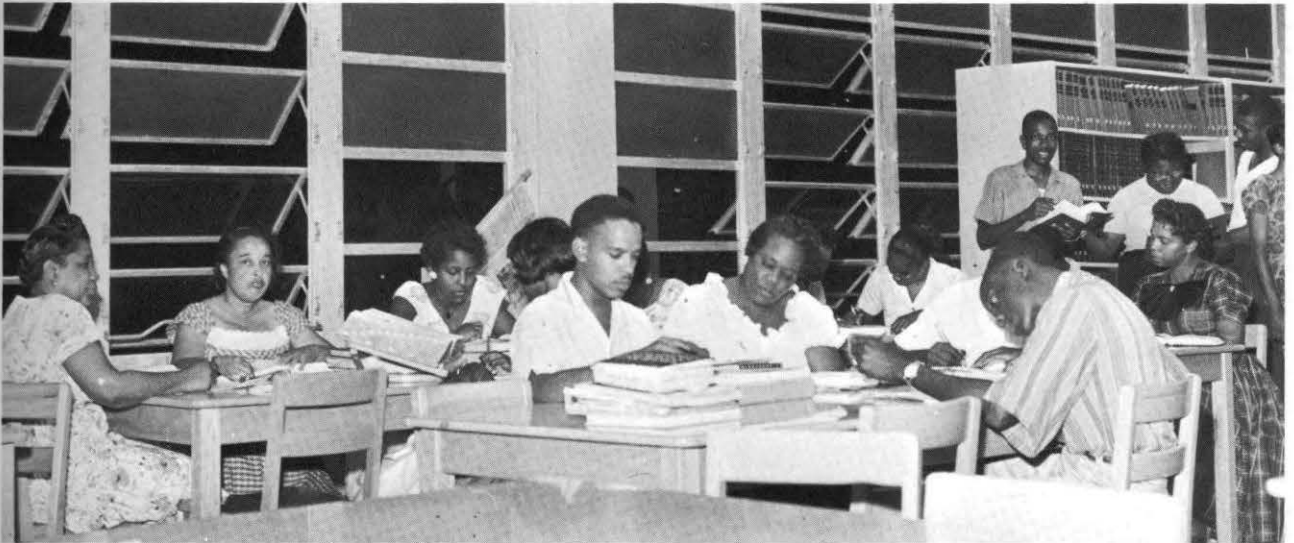

Hey Jimmie don't drown her . . .

We vote

We study and

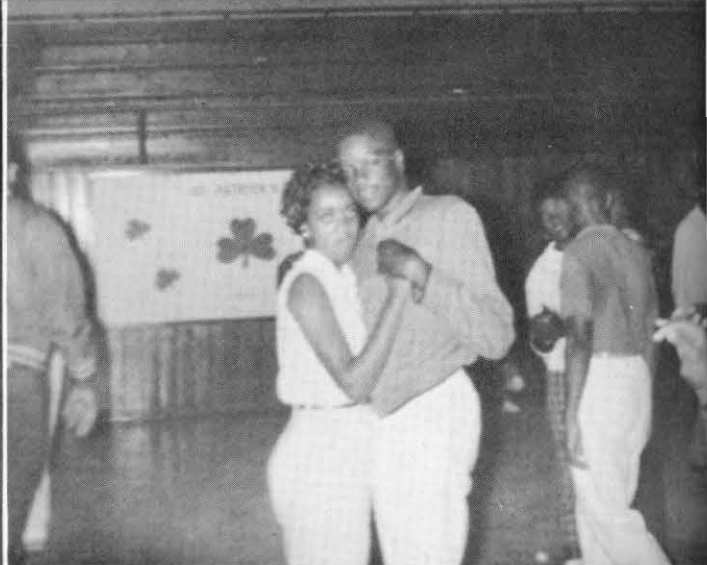

We lounge

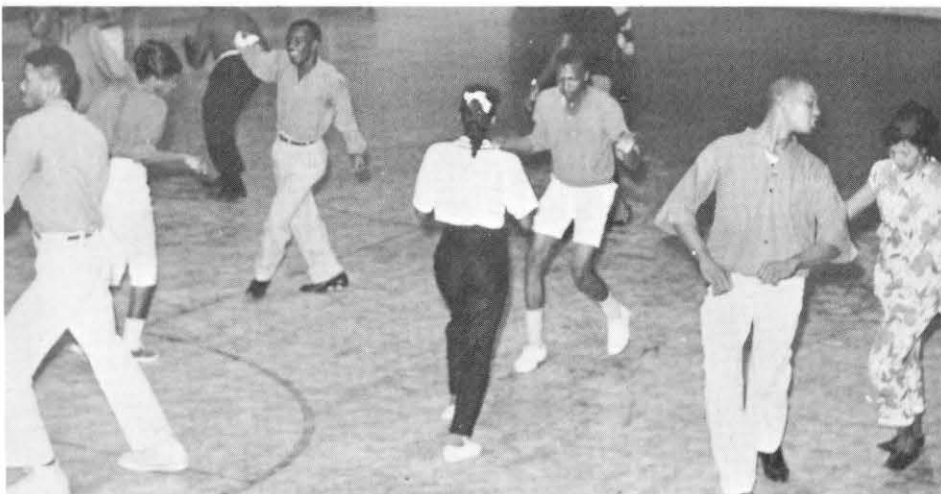

We can't find anyone to dance with . . .

Are you two serious???????????

Adell must be losing

While we danced . . .

Miss Bullock and Ferguson supervised the music.

Hey! Mr. Jerry, are you working or posing??????

Miss Freshman of 59 & 60 pose with classmates . . .

That's Agnes, Miss R.J.C. attendant and Cooper . . .

Watch it class, not until the camera has snapped . . .

Mrs. Stubbs, our Instructor poses, while we play . . .

Miss Patron
